

ASU NIGHT AT THE PITTSBURGH OPERA

8 p.m., Friday, April 4

Benedum Center for the Performing Arts—

7th Street & Liberty Avenue

Join fellow Western Pennsylvania Northern Appalachian ASU Alumni for an unforgettable cultural evening at the Pittsburgh Opera, as the group performs Verdi's exotic masterpiece, "Aida." One of our members, Henry Alviani, has a singing role in this production.

Pittsburgh Opera combines its long history with an exciting artistic and company vision to make it one of the most dynamic opera companies in the country today. All of the Opera's programs and activities are guided by its mission to enrich the life of Pittsburgh and the tri-state area and draw national and international attention to the region.

Tickets are $45 for the performance and a post-performance reception buffet. Please make your reservations by March 7.

Name(s): _____

Number of tickets: _____

E-Mail: _____

Make checks payable to Henry Alviani and mail with form to Henry Alviani, 72 Campbell Ave., Clarion University, Clarion, PA 16214