

Queen Butterfly

Caterpillar eats milkweeds. Adult butterflies can be seen year round except after a frost in the winter.

Painted Lady

Caterpillar eats thistles, mallows. In wet years, large numbers of painted lady butterflies can be seen migrating in April-May.

Two-tailed Swallowtail

Caterpillar eats hop and ash tree leaves. Official Arizona State Butterfly

Gulf Fritillary

Caterpillar eats passion vine. Adult butterflies can be seen year round except after a frost in the winter.

Checkered White

Caterpillar eats rock cress (Arabis sp.) and other plants in the mustard plant family.

Giant Swallowtail

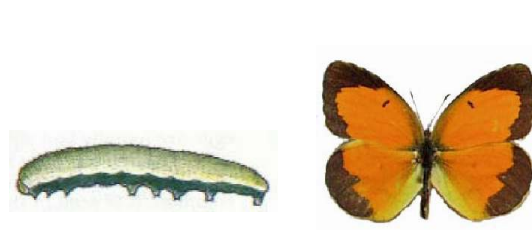

Caterpillar is camouflaged to resemble bird droppings and eats citrus tree leaves.

Cloudless Sulfur

Caterpillar eats desert senna.

Sleepy Orange

Caterpillar eats desert senna.

Red Admiral

Caterpillar eats nettles. Adult butterflies prefer to sip rotting fruits rather than nectar.