- Courses in bold print have prerequisites which must also be met.
- All courses must be completed with a grade of "C" or higher in order to transfer.
- The course evaluation as listed in the Course Equivalency Guide \(CEG\) is valid for the academic year in which the student satisfactorily completes the course.
- A course evaluation may be subject to changes in subsequent issues of the Course Equivalency Guide \(CEG\) due to changes in the university or community college curriculum. Thus, prior to registering for any community college course, students must always check the CEG to identify the current equivalency of the courses they are planning to take.

- Completion of the ATP provides exemption from ASU admission requirements for students who complete the degree with a minimum 2.0 (4.0=A) for Arizona residents and a minimum 2.5 for non-residents. The ATP degree does not assure admission to any specific program at ASU.
- Students will be considered for admission to the Professional Teacher Preparation Program \(PTPP\) if they meet the following criteria: Admission to ASU as a degree seeking student with 56 credit hours completed from the list below (includes all coursework in progress) and a 2.5 cumulative grade point average; and completion of the formal application to the PTPP by February 15 for fall admission and September 15 for spring admission. February 15 and September 15 are priority deadlines. Applications are accepted beyond these dates.

Consult with an MCCCD ATP advisor to select courses to meet the following requirements and to complete the minimum 60 credits but no more than a total of 64 credits. To meet the different area requirements, select courses from the current CEG Course Equivalency Guide. Students are strongly encouraged to meet with a College of Teacher Education and Leadership advisor from ASU at the West campus regarding the selection of elective courses. Students may want to consult the appropriate CTEL Elementary Education Critical Requirements/Roadmap for recommendations on when to take specific courses.

ATP NOTES

<sup>1</sup> Language Proficiency – Bilingual Education applicants must show proficiency in Spanish either by a grade of “C” or better in SPA 201 and SPA 202 Intermediate Spanish or CLEP equivalency. English as a Second Language applicants must have completed six semester hours in a single foreign language or its equivalent.

<sup>2</sup> Constitution Requirements – The U.S. and Arizona constitution requirements must be satisfied for teacher certification in Arizona, but are not required for graduation from the West campus program. These requirements may be met by completing POS220 or POS221 and POS222 or by passing scores on appropriate constitution tests.

<sup>3</sup> Enrollment in EDU 221 and the PTPP includes field experience. The PTPP will require a fingerprint clearance card issued by the Arizona Department of Public Safety. For information, see Teacher Certification on the Arizona Department of Education Website – Teacher Certification information.
